

Westcountry HR
Providing Clear Precise HR Advice

Great Personal Service and Follow Through - West Country HR is a HR Consultancy that delivers personal service to all businesses and no project is too small.

Westcountry HR is always available when you call and the service is second to none!

Westcountry HR give's our business a local, friendly - hands on approach to all our HR needs.

Nicki is an energetic, enthusiastic and encouraging individual. She has ideas and then turns them into reality. She is generous with her time and consistently looks for ways to support and help others. A valuable member of any team equally good at leading and knowing when to seek advice. A pleasure to work with!

Nicki is an enthusiastic and knowledgeable HR professional who is hardworking and thrives on being challenged. Nicki was my PA whilst at Barratt Homes with a confident approach and great organisational skills. One of Nicki's strengths is her ability to form key working relationships at all levels and was trusted by all.

Westcountry HR
Providing Clear Precise HR Advice

I would recommend Nicki to any employer looking for a HR Consultant for their Company..

Nicola is a hard working professional person who has a high level of integrity and with a trustworthy nature she gains the confidence of the people she works with and manages. I am confident she adds value to any organisation that employees or works with her.

Nicola is a very knowledgeable, enthusiastic people focused HR manager who can communicate simple as well as complex employee related issues clearly and concisely. I highly recommend Nicola.

I have worked with Nicola, on a part time basis, for almost a year. I find her approachable, organised and efficient; she willingly makes time to discuss the business' HR issues with me and invariably has a pragmatic solution to the plethora of problems she has faced. I would willingly recommend her for any HR Managers role now and see potential for further responsibility in the future.

Nicola is responsive, efficient and very well organised. Always keen to help and able to communicate at all levels..

Great knowledge and expertise - Nicki provides a great service and is on hand 24/7 with the latest information to protect employer and employees. I would highly recommend her.

First class Knowledge - I have known Nicki for over 4 years and have always found her knowledge and expertise to be of the highest standard. She has great people skills, is comfortable working in any environment and networks well. I highly recommend Nicki and Westcountry HR.

Reassuring, informative and helpful We are a small business with great staff, but it's still good to know we have the right handbooks contracts and procedures in place just in case. Nicola has supplied us thorough documentation in a timely manor. Just what we were after !

Experienced and professional HR Service- First class Customer Service, very experienced in HR helps small to medium sized businesses grow.

Thank you Westcountry HR! - When we needed a new staff handbook and contracts, they were able to provide a very quick and reasonably priced solution. Very professional. Can't praise highly enough.

Great Personal Service and Follow Through - West Country HR is a small boutique agency that delivers personal service to all businesses and no project is too small.

Westcountry HR is always available when you call and the service is second to none!

Westcountry HR give's our business a local, friendly - hands on approach to all our HR needs.

Nicki is an energetic, enthusiastic and encouraging individual. She has ideas and then turns them into reality. She is generous with her time and consistently looks for ways to support and help others. A valuable member of any team equally good at leading and knowing when to seek advice. A pleasure to work with!

Nicki is an enthusiastic and knowledgeable HR professional who is hardworking and thrives on being challenged. Nicki was my PA whilst at Barratt Homes with a confident approach and great organisational skills. One of Nicki's strengths is her ability to form key working relationships at all levels and was trusted by all.

I would recommend Nicki to any employer looking for a HR Consultant for their Company.

Nicola is a hard working professional person who has a high level of integrity and with a trustworthy nature she gains the confidence of the people she works with and manages. I am confident she adds value to any organisation that employees or works with her.

Nicola is a very knowledgeable, enthusiastic people focused HR manager who can communicate simple as well as complex employee related issues clearly and concisely. I highly recommend Nicola.

I have worked with Nicola, on a part time basis, for almost a year. I find her approachable, organised and efficient; she willingly makes time to discuss the business' HR issues with me and invariably has a pragmatic solution to the plethora of problems she has faced. I would willingly recommend her for any HR Managers role now and see potential for further responsibility in the future.

Nicola is responsive, efficient and very well organised. Always keen to help and able to communicate at all levels.